Sub: Letter of Recommendation for Rahman's Chambers, Barristers, and Advocates.

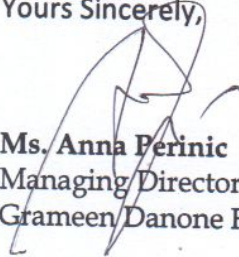

Dear Sir,

We, hereby at Grameen Danone, acknowledge and recommend Rahman's Chambers whom we have contacted in 2007 seeking assistance for disputes arising with the National Board of Revenue (NBR) Income Tax office, involving rejection of trading account and imposition of estimated profit based on assumption.

The Finance department of the Firm, under the leadership and expertise of Mr. Mohammad Forrukh Rahman, successfully handled the income tax reference case pending in the High Court and also successfully argued before the Court the legality of such assumptions and rejection of the trading account and its expenditures upon remand. Finally the tribunal, once recommended from the High Court upon perusal of relevant receipts, vouchers, verifiable transactions, passed favorable judgment in our favor.

We recommend and acknowledge Rahman's Chambers for its professionalism, dedication and excellence in team work with a view to assist its clients which eventually helped us in resolving the disputes by exhausting several forums like the High Court, tribunals, tax ADR etc this year in 2018.

Yours Sincerely,

Ms. Anna Ferinic
